

Portfolio Requirements for Incoming Freshman

There is not a requirement for incoming freshmen in the Fall 2024 class to submit a portfolio. However, if it follows:

Your portfolio should demonstrate your creative capabilities through a series of drawings, sketches, or illustrations, as well as your ability to solve problems, connect with others, and/or connect with other people. It is a self-portrait of your skills, how you see yourself, and a declaration of your design process and what is important to you.

You may submit architectural drawings, sketches, or illustrations, as well as drawings, sculptures, or other works of art. The portfolio can show that you have the motivation and skill to complete a variety of work or projects that you have carried to some level of completion. In regard to...
